

EXHIBITION DRAWN FROM THE PAST

INVITATION TO THE OPENING SATURDAY 16TH JUNE 2018 AT 12:00

This exhibition explores the ancient art forms of spinning, lace making, fibre art in the form of wet felt and wood turning.

Feast your eyes on the colourful fibre art of Jutta Faulds, delicate lace of Anne Macdonald intricate spinning of Clare Smith and Wendy Bloy

and the colourful crochet shawls with wooden turned shawl pins created by Heidi Snyman are perfect for keeping out the chills.

The wood art on exhibition includes work by Marcus Kruger, Debbie Jewitt, Clyde Neumann, Winston French, Tony Matchett, Fred Wright and Dave Knight, some of whom were Royal Show winners. We introduce the beautifully crafted wooden bags of Kevin Ellis.

Feel a need to be creative during these long winter evenings? Why not reawaken the artist within you by trying your hand at an art form with a difference? Now is the chance to wander through the garden and watch the artists demonstrate their techniques.

Light vegetarian and vegan refreshments available at the opening.

The exhibition continues until SUNDAY 29 JULY 2018.
